

Practical Foresight Guide

Chapter 12 - Acknowledgements

Author: Dr. Michael Jackson, Chairman, Shaping Tomorrow

Acknowledgements

“For my long suffering family, who support my interest in the past and passion for the future, without complaint and offer great encouragement in the current.”

Mike Jackson - January 2011

I’m also extraordinarily grateful to the following futurists for sharing their ideas and materials with me

- Adam Gordon, Future Savvy, UK
- Averil Horton, Alpha2Omega, UK
- Bruce Lloyd, South Bank University, UK
- Jay Forrest, JayForrest.com, USA
- Joseph (Joe) F. Coates, Consulting Futurist, Inc., USA
- Kaat Exterbille, Kate Thomas Kleyn, Netherlands
- Lloyd Walker, Precurve , USA
- Marcus Barber, Looking Up, Feeling Good, Australia
- Maree Conway, Thinking Futures, Australia
- Sheila Moorcroft, 4RTT, UK
- Terry Grim, Foresight Alliance, USA
- Walter Derzko, Smart Economy, USA
- Wendy Schultz, Infinite Futures, UK
- William Halal, TechCast, USA

and, not forgetting the works of many famous, and not so famous, futurists past and present only some of whom I have space to mention here:

Francis J. Aguilar, Chun Wei Choo, Ed Cornish, Graham Molitor, John Naisbitt, Sohail Inayatullah, Ian Miles and my own hero A.P Giannini who I never met, was never a futurist by title, but who inspires all I do.

I’m also grateful to the Foresight Network* community of 2,750 futurists, strategists and change agents for their ideas and support.

I've had help too from corporate people including:

- Jim Burke, Northrop Grumman, USA
- Rene Rohrbeck, Deutsches Telecom, Germany
- Dave Brown, BT, UK
- Jeff Baker, BP, USA

and others within PNNL (Pacific Northwest National Laboratories, USA), Phillips (Netherlands), Department of Food and Rural Affairs (Defra, UK), Bosch (Germany) and many more.

I thank you all for giving me this great gift of better foresight. I hope you, the reader, will want to explore their work and champion shaping tomorrow for the benefit of all.

“The best fun I've ever had in my life has been doing things that other people declared impossible” A.P. Giannini 1921 Founder - The Bank of America.
